Rural backyard Poultry Development

*515. SHRI C. RAMACHANDRAIAH: Will the Minister of RAILWAYS be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government propose to start a new scheme viz Rural Back-yard Poultry Development;

(b) if so, the salient features of the schemes;

(c) the time by which the scheme is likely to be implemented; and

(d) the steps taken by Government to strengthen the contribution of the organized sector by promoting backyard poultry particularly in Andhra Pradesh?

THE MINISTER OF AGRICULTURE (SHRI SHARAD PAWAR): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) The proposed scheme 'Rural Backyard Poultry Development' envisages supporting small farmer and landless labour families to take up backyard poultry activity based on a three-tier concept of State Implementing Agencies (SIA), mother units and beneficiaries with backward and forward linkages and involvement of NGOs. Training will be an important feature of the scheme. Marketing of the surplus produce is expected to be ensured through proposed marketing outlets. The beneficiary and mother units are proposed to be assisted by way of subsidy and loan components.

(c) The scheme is expected to be launched after receiving due approval in 2006-07.

(d) The Government has provided a financial assistance of Rs. 64.46 crores to upgrade a total of 131 State Poultry Farms in the country from 1999-2000 till March 2006. This includes an amount of Rs. 47.92 lakhs provided to the State of Andhra Pradesh in 2004-05 for strengthening District Poultry Farm, Mamnoor, Warangal District. These farms multiply and distribute birds suitable for backyard poultry.
